Vngouerd youth, to waile it with her age,
The parents liue whose children thou hast butchered,
Old witherd plants to waile it with their age:
Sweare not by time to come, for that thou hast
Misused, ere vsed, by time misused orepast.
King. As I intend to prosper and repent,
So thriue I in my dangerous attempt
Of hostile armes, my selfe, my selfe confound.
Day yeild me not thy light, nor night thy rest,
Be opposite all planets of good lucke
To my proceedings, if with pure hearts loue,
Immaculated deuotion, holy thoughts,
I tender not thy beautious Princely daughter,
In her consists my happinesse and thine.
Without her follows to this land and me.
To thee her selfe and many a Christian soule,
Sad desolate ruine and decay.
It cannot be auoyded but by this:
It will not be auoyded but by this:
Therefore good mother (I must call you so)
Be the atturney of my loue to her.
Plead what I will be, not what I haue beene,
Not by deserts, but what I will deserue:
Vrge the necessity and state of times,
And be not peeuish fond in deepe designes,
Qu. Shall I be tempted of the diuell thus?
King. I, if the diuell tempt thee to doe good.
Qu. Shall I forget my selfe, to be my selfe?
King. I, if your selues remembrance wrong your selues.
Qu. But thou didst kill my children,
King. But in your daughters wombe ile bury them,
Wherein that nest of spicery there shall breed,
Selfes of themselues to your recomfiture.
Qu. Shall I goe winne my daughter to thy will?
King. And be a happy mother in the deed.
Qu. I goe, write to me very shortly.
King. Beare her my true loues kisse: farewell. Exit Qu.
